

Contribution Instructions

Example : Deadline for investment instructions if the 25th of every month is your contribution date of corporate-type defined contribution pension plan.

Reference : Contribution date of individual-type defined contribution pension plan

After 13 business days counting from the deduction date of contribution (Next business day if it is 26th or Financial institution holidays.) is the contribution date.

- "Contribution Instructions" refer to providing or changing instructions for the way you would like future contributions to be allocated.
- An investment instruction received before 12:00 a.m. on the day prior to the upcoming contribution date will be reflected in the month when the next contribution is made.
- The investment instructions you have provided or changed will stay in effect for all future contributions, unless you change the way you would like these to be allocated.
- If you fail to complete investment instructions by the dead line of the first contribution, the contributions are managed in cash and can not be invested (uninstructed individual assets)
